

From the backstreets of Remuera in New Zealand Bruce McLaren rose to the very top of international motorsport.

As a driver he won four Grands Prix and the 1966 Le Mans 24 Hours race. As a constructor he founded the McLaren company which continues to this day at the pinnacle of the motorsport.

To celebrate his life the largest collection of McLaren Racing cars were assembled to pay tribute to the man who started it all, and inspired a generation of motorsport drivers.

Featured interviews include with team mates Sir Jack Brabham and fellow Le Mans winner Chris Amon.
